HORSE SHOW HAS BRILLIANT END

Baltimore Society Flocks to Elridge Kennels on Closing Day.

VIRGINIANS GET TWO FIRSTS

Dunlop's Pair Secured Second Honors in Pony Harness Class—Other Awards.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BALTIMORE, Md., May 20.—The Horse Show had a brilliant wind up at the Elridge Kennels this afternoon, attracting a throng larger than has ever been seen there on a similar occasion, and the fine weather bringing out an array of beautiful costumes positively bewildering in its richness and variety.

Society turned out in full force, and the crush around the stand was so great that access became difficult.

Miss Nancy Lee was the most prominent of the Baltimore women to show horses, while Miss Katherine H. Elkins, daughter of Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, had several mounts and rode them superbly.

The mother family, of Philadelphia, was much in evidence, Mr. Charles E. Blather having horses entered in thirteen classes. Misses Josephine and Dorothy Blather and Mrs. Victor Blather rode, and each proved to be an expert as well as a graceful rider.

The ring was in the best possible shape and the programme quite up to the standard. Baltimore teams captured four firsts, two seconds and three thirds, while Virginia secured two firsts, one second and one third. Washington having to be satisfied with two thirds. In the pony pairs in harness class Virginia came to the front for the first time, the exhibit being among the finest seen. In the competition were David Dunlop's Moving Picture and Delight, a pair whose cost price ran well up into the thousands, but they could not do better than get second honors, a Baltimore pair taking first. In the four in hand team exhibit no honors were awarded, the two teams being disqualified for flaws and one horse of the third going lame.

In the class of ladies' hunters carrying up to 100 pounds, Miss Katherine H. Elkins got third prize with Cynel. Red Raven again came to the front in the hunt club teams, getting first honors with Buck, ridden by L. G. Young. Miss Elkins landed another third, and Cynel, in the champion lightweight hunter class, while Red Raven walked away with the blue ribbon in the champion middleweight hunter class. In the class of third going lame, a pair whose cost price ran well up into the thousands, but they could not do better than get second honors, a Baltimore pair taking first. In the four in hand team exhibit no honors were awarded, the two teams being disqualified for flaws and one horse of the third going lame.
